OR D E R:-

Instructions have been issued in the Wireless Message 1st read above, to the District Collectors to form Ham Radio Clubs by utilizing the services of the existing employees of National Institute of Amateur Radio (NIAR).

2. Accordingly the District Collector, Hyderabad has registered Ham Radio Club at Collectorate campus, Hyderabad under the certificate of registration issued by the registrar of Societies 2nd read above and by utilizing the services of the existing two Ham Radio Operators as Secretary and Joint Secretary of the Club.
3. Orders have been issued in the G.O. 3rd read above, according sanction for payment of honorarium to the Ham personnel working in district Ham Radio Clubs including Hyderabad Ham Radio Club for the financial year 2011 – 2012.
4. In their letter 4th read above, the Union Home Ministry has proposed to establish 'Integrated Emergency Communication System' as a pilot project in Hyderabad and install in Revenue (DM) Department at "H" Block, to monitor the relief operations from State level permanently. Hence there is need for Ham Radio Operators to work permanently in Revenue (DM) Department, Secretariat. Further the services of Ham Radio Operators are being utilized in Revenue (DM) Department from the year 1998 till date. Therefore there is need to continue their services in the department on honorarium basis to attend disaster management activities in addition to 'Integrated Emergency Communication System'.
5. Government therefore have decided and accordingly order to shift the two posts of Secretary and Joint Secretary (Ham Operators) from the Collectorate of Hyderabad to the Revenue (DM) Dept., Secretariat for utilization of their services for regular Disaster Management activities in addition to 'Integrated Emergency Communication System' on honorarium basis by meeting the honorarium of the post of Joint Secretary from the overall savings available from the Grant-in-aid provided in the G.O. 3rd read above.
